CAPTAIN

Travis Evans

Travis moved to the east coast of the U.S. at a young age before exploring the Mediterranean and the Caribbean and he can't remember a time when he was not on the water on a boat in some way. He has been sailing, racing or working on sailboats for over 23 years now. He could not imagine a life without wind and waves.

His passion, as a captain, is for people to experience great times on the sea and for guests to build memories for a life time. His is calm and focused under pressure and well versed on a variety of vessels and conditions.

He enjoys teaching others how to sail, free-dive, and experience the beautiful waters of the Caribbean all the while feeling safe and cared for. He, along with his wife/chef make a great team.

Certificates:

- USCG Class A
- Open Water Free Diving
- CPR and First Aid Trained
- Fluent in English

CHEF

Becky Evans

Becky grew up in Romania and has had an adventurous spirit from the very beginning. She always loved the outdoors and soon came to love sailing the ocean.

Her passion for great food, serving people and a true love of the sea all came together 8 years ago when she met her husband.

She is very attentive and loves helping others enjoy the time of their lives on the epic Bahamian waters. She takes great pride and care in her food and service to guests.

She is warm and caring and helps build a relaxed and much enjoyed culture on the boat.

Certificates:

- Culinary and Food Engineering Degree
- Food Hygiene Level 2
- Fluent in English
- Native in Romanian
